BIO

Born and raised on Guam, Lunakayz started as a live musician. Known for her vocals in numerous bands such as The Sirens, she is no stranger to performing all over the island. She also performed in multiple countries of Europe, Thailand, and Cambodia with her college choir. After gaining her degree in music at the University of Guam, Lunakayz added DJing to her list of talents in 2019. Not only does she showcase her unique mixing style of electronic type genres with instrumental and jazzy type music, but she also sings live during sets.

EVENTS/APPEARANCES

Luna opened up for numerous big-time performers such as Hirie, Tomorrow's Bad Seeds, and Julia Zahra. She has played at concerts, private parties, Guam bars, booze cruises, and weddings.
